

ASP.NET Core Workshop

Getting Started

Learning Outcome

1. To understand how to create a ASP.NET Core MVC project in Visual Studio
2. To understand how a default ASP.NET Core MVC project behaves
3. To setup Visual Studio such that the workflow is for conducive for client/server development
4. Download and install Visual Studio Community
<https://visualstudio.microsoft.com/downloads/>

Exercise

1. Create a new ASP.NET MVC project called HelloWorld.
2. Run your web application.
3. Launch a web browser and access your web application.
4. Select Privacy from menu (of your web app).
5. View the default Privacy page
6. Under Views/Home of your web app, modify Privacy.cshtml.
7. Refresh browser to verify that your changes appear in the View.
8. Create another controller called HelloController
9. Create a folder called Hello in Views/
10. Create a view called Index.chnml inside the Views/Hello/ folder
11. In the browser, view the Hello/Index page